The crops of Spring grain, the indian corn, the buckwisest, the positions, and other roots, on which the settlers depended to make up for this loss, in like manner utterly falled. In the pastures and mowing-grounds, the grass withered and died in early flaument, under the heat. Multitudes, to the number, it is compassed, of thirty thousand, have left the Territory to seek subsistence in the States; multitudes, to the number, it is compassed, of theiry thousand, have left the Territory to seek subsistence in the States; multitudes yet remain, who have heither the means of engrating, nor money to procure food from the region to the north and out of them, where the crops have been desendant. THE TRIBUNE for 1861.

PROSPECTUS.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE is now in its XXth Volume.

During the past year, THE TRIBUNE has been obliged to devote quite a large proportion of its space to Politics, but we shall henceforth be able to limit our space devoted to Political discussion, and devote most of our columns to subjects of less intense, but more abiding, interest. Among these, we mean to pay especial attention to

I.—EDUCATION.

The whole subject of Education, both Popular and General, will be discussed in our columns throughout the year 1861, and we hope to emist in that discussion some of the profoundest thinkers and the ablest instructors in our country. It is at once our hope and our resolve that the cause of Education shall receive an impetus from the exertions of THE TRIBUNE in its behalf during the year 1861. II.-AGRICULTURE. II.—AGRICULTURE.

We have been compelled to restrict our elucidations of this great interest throughout 1860, and shall endeavor to atoms therefor in 1861. Whatever discovery, deduction, demonstration, is calculated to render the reward of labor devoted to cultivation more ample or more certain, shall receive prompt and full at-

III.-MANUFACTURES, &c. We hall every invention or enterprise whereby American Capital and Labor are attracted to and advantageously employed in any department of Manufacturing or Mechanical Industry as a real contribution to the Public Weal, insuring ampler, steadier, more convenient, more remunerating markets to the Farmer. with fuller employment and better wages to the Laborer. The Progress of Mining, Iron-making, Steel-making, Cloth-weaving, &c., &c., in our country, and the world, shall be watched and reported by us with an earnest and active sympathy.

IV.—FOREIGN AFFAIRS. We employ the best correspondents in London, Paris, Turia, Berlin, and other European capitals, to transmit us early and ac-curate advices of the great changes there sliently but certainly preparing. In spite of the pressure of Domestic Politics, our news from the Old World is now varied and ample; but we shall have to render it more perfect during the eventful year just before us.

V.-HOME NEWS. We employ regular paid correspondents in California, at the Isthmus of Darien, in the Rocky Mountain Gold Region, and wherever else they seem requisite. From the more accessible portions of our own country, we derive our information mainly from the multifarious correspondents of the Associated Press, from our exchanges, and the occasional letters of intelligent from our exchanges, and the occasional fetters of intengents friends. We aim to print the cheapest general newspaper, with the fullest and most authentic summary of useful intelligence, that is anywhere afforded. Hoping to "make each day a critic on the last," and print a better and better paper from year to year, as our meant are steadily enlarged through the generous cooperation of our many well-wishers, we solicit and shall labor

'ARDLY REALIRED.

HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviction whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a set guard, intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escapeattention, till too late to be remedied; and is indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be classified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idophatic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common, and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rhecomatism, and all fabrile diseases. In its nervous form it is aympathetic of disease of the atomach, constituting sick headache. variety of diseases, among which are Apolicay, Goot, Rheematism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form it is sympathatic of disease of the atomach, constituting sick headacks, of hepatic disease, constituting bilis as headacks; of worms, constituting and the disease, constituting bilis as headacks; as well as remained interine affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with Headackses; a harmin and Plethora are also affections which frequently occasion headachs. Idiopathic Headachs is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of arrecess headachs; sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health, and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirits or accriticy of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and sometimes provoking vorniting. Under this class may also be named Neuralgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache, the Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and safe remedy, reflexing the most scute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which Headache is the uttering index.

CONSTIPATION OR COSTIVENESS.

No one of the "many fils flesh is belt to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and as much neglected, as Costiveness. Often originating in carclessness, or sedentary habits, it is regarded as sight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in reality it is the precurser and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evilge of which costiveness is the asnal attendant are Headache, Colie, Rheumatism, Fool Breath, Piles, and others of like nature, while a long train of frightful diseases, such as Malignant Severs, Abresses, Dysantery, Diarrhea, Dyspepsia, Apoplexy, Eniepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypochondriasis, Melancholy, and linearity first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is cradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder about receive times the case is cradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive times the case is cradicated fits on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the insidious approaches of disease, and destroy this daugerous foe to human life.

THEN Y MILLIONS OF DOLLARS SAVED.—Mr. Spaiding has sold two millions of hottles of his celebrated Prepared Gius, and it is estimated that each bottle saved at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, those making an aggregate of wenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total loss by this valuable invention. Having made his Giue a household word, he now proceeds to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalic Pills, and if they are as good as his Giue, headaches will soon vanish away like snow in July.

FACT WORTH KNOWING.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a cer-ain cure for Sick Headache, Nervous Meadache, Costiveners, and General Debility.

GREAT DISCOVERY.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this age may be considered the system of vacsination for protection from Small-Pex, the Cephalio Pill for relief of Headache, and the use of Quinius for the prevention of Fevers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity icog after their discoverers are forgotten.

Per Din you ever have the Sick Headache! Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the loathing and diagues the height of food? How totally unfit you ware for pleasure, conversation, or study! One of the Cephalia Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced.
